Rainbow Lives In Austria

It is again time for each Rainbower, who is able, to be giving serious thought to attending the 1986 Rainbow Division Reunion in Oklahoma City, July 9-12. Al Brewer and his committee are getting things ready.

A more immediate problem is, of course, membership. Have you paid your 85-86 dues so you are counted? We must continue to make an even more concerted effort at individual and chapter levels to find those Rainbow veterans who have yet to know of the RDVA. Also, locate and return to the active roster dropout former members. Our active membership grows smaller as more members answer the final roll call. Have you done your part to find that old wartime buddy? We need them! See the Secretary's report.

My wife Helen and I attended the Tulsa, Oklahoma Chapter Meeting in December, together with NAP Myrtle and PNP Rube Evanoff. The Georges and Millers are excellent hosts. We enjoyed meeting the chapter members and attending the outstanding Christmas program presented by the Tulsa First Baptist Church.

On our way home we detoured through Kansas City and met with RDVA Secretary Herb Butt at his Independence home. Herb and Lora rounded up several MO-KAN Chapter members, among whom was Associate National Chaplain Fr. Robert Weiss, and proceeded to serve an excellent meal. Much was discussed. One item: what disposition to be made of the numerous RDVA owned flags now in custody of the Secretary.

Our future itinerary includes a visit to the Arizona Chapter 8-9 March; Iowa Chapter 11-13 April; and the Minnesota Chapter 18-19 April. These three pending visits have all been coordinated with the Auxiliary President.

On the subject of linkage between the RDVA and the 42d Infantry (Rainbow) Division, NYARNG, such linkage was approved by the membership at the 1984 Reunion. The President of RDVA is ex-

The January Reveille carried an article on "Rainbow History and the Painting of Rainbow in Numerous Places." The Austrians remember the 42d Division's presence in 1945-46 for many reasons, but a constant reminder has been the rainbows painted on stone. In the 40 years since WW II these have weathered and faded.

President Woelfer is in receipt of a letter through the U.S. Embassy in Vienna from the Bezirksleiter of Pinzgau, Land Salzburg, Austria, stating the Environment and Mountain Watch Department of Pinzgau has had the rainbow painted on the rock face along the main highway leading to Salzburg from Zell Am Zee, near the towns of Unken and Weisbach, repainted to its original colors.

Several pictures accompanied the letter, one of which is shown above, together with a pamphlet titled "The Americans In Pinzgau." The 42d Rainbow Division receives a fair share of coverage. According to the Austrians, the 242 Infantry was in the area. Obviously the Austrians consider us a part of their history. Some of you may have helped paint the rainbows.

President Woelfer has written to the Bezirksleiter (Herr Nikolaus Hinterstoisser) thanking him for his thoughtfulness and enclosed a new Rainbow shoulder patch.

The photos and pamphlet will be on display at the National Reunion in Oklahoma City.

Best Soldier Award

At the 1984 Reunion the RDVA Memorial Association agreed to sponsor two awards in the 42d Infantry Division: the MacArthur Trophy for the Division Best Unit and the Major General Harry J. Collins Trophy for the Division Best Soldier.

On 22 February 1986 the Division Best Soldier Award was presented by President Carlyle P. Woelfer to Specialist 4 Donna J. Anderson at a ceremony conducted in the armory of the 1st Squadron (Mezd) 101st Calvary, 42d Infantry Division, Staten Island, NY. The presentation was witnessed by RDVA members attending the 1986 Mid-Year in Newark, NY.

The Collins Trophy is a large plaque with a statue of a WW II infantryman, signaling "Follow Me," mounted on it with full sized rainbows in the upper corners.

A plate with two stars identifies the trophy and that it has been presented by the RDVA. It has a series of small plates upon which the winner's name is engraved.

Have You Made Plans?

It may be a little early in the season for reruns, but the following annual reunion information is being reprinted to assist you in making arrangements to attend. This information will even be repeated in the May and June issues of the Reveille, but by then there may be no room in the Inn (Holiday, that is).

PNP Al Brewer, 1986 Reunion Chairman, has furnished the following detailed information to assist you in planning to attend:

"We hope each of you are making plans to attend the National Reunion of the Rainbow Division Veterans at the Holiday Inn West in Oklahoma City, OK. Dates of the reunion will be July 9 through 12, 1986. From the Early Bird on July 9th through the banquet on July 12th, the Oklahoma City Chapter and Auxiliary are planning for your enjoyment.

"Advance reunion registrations would be helpful to the Chapter and Auxiliary. If you wish to do this, please send $35.00 for each person to: Al Brewer, P.O. Box 242, Mustang, OK 73064.

"We look forward to seeing you in July!"

Editor's Corner

(Sins and Omissions)

World War One Rainbower Earl Teagarden advises that, although his wife Edna is a PNAP, he is not a PNP, despite our efforts to accord him that honor in the last two issues of the Reveille. We still think you are a PNP, Earl — in this case a Pretty Nice Person. As a matter of fact the RDVA and the Auxiliary are composed of PNPs — Pretty Nice People.

In the unlikely event you wondered, the lovely lady wearing the corsage and standing by PNP "Rube" Evanoff in the picture on page 6 of the January issue was NAP Myrtle Evanoff. Please accept our apology, Myrtle.

Windsor Memories 1984

Jack Leach (L-232d Inf) and wife Marjorie, Northville, MI, attended their first national reunion in July 1984. It was, for them, an unforgettable experience. As a result, Jack compiled an alphabetical directory of every person who registered at the 1984 national reunion.

The directory contains all the info that is in the official registration book, ID est., Rainbower's name and unit, wife's name, their home address. It is a 22-page directory with over 750 names, is 3½" x 6¼". The attractive cover reads: "Registration Roster, Annual Reunion of the National Association, 42nd Rainbow Division Veterans, July 11-14, 1985, Windsor, Ontario Canada."

Jack is making these available at no cost, but the Michigan Chapter would welcome contributions of $1.00 each to cover postage and handling. To order your copy (or copies), please write to Marty Pawlak, Michigan Chapter Secretary, 8161 W. Grand River, Brighton, MI 48116. Make checks or money orders payable to: Michigan Chapter RDVA. If you appreciate what Jack has done, drop him a line. His name and address are listed on page 12 (Leon A. Schenck).

(Ed's note: Maybe copies will be available at Oklahoma City.)

222D Infantry Meeting

The 222d Infantry Meeting at the Annual Reunion in Oklahoma City will be at 3:00 p.m., 9 July 1986 and not on 8 July as stated in the October issue of "BADGE," as the reunion dates are July 9, 10, 11 and 12.

Let's Clear The Air

Some of our readers may think it necessary to wash the editor's typewriter out with soap for allowing it to print the word "linkage," but take it easy on his IBM, as the following explanation compiled from information furnished by Vice President Joe Rosalia may clarify the situation:

1. Linkage IS NOT synonymous with membership!

2. Our Constitution and Bylaws for the past 67 years have been very precise as to membership eligibility.

3. No change to our Constitution or Bylaws has been, is now or will be submitted to alter membership criteria.

4. Efforts to establish a linkage program between RDVA and the 42d Infantry (Rainbow) Division, NYARNG, are officially sanctioned actions of RDVA through appropriate conduct of our duly elected national officers.

5. At the 1984 mid-year executive meeting in Orlando, FL, the national President appointed a committee to conduct a feasibility study on Linkage.

6. The Linkage Committee's report was given to the executive board in 1984 at Windsor, Ontario. The report was accepted and subsequently the findings and recommendations were presented to the membership for consideration.

7. The membership, at its first business meeting in Windsor, approved for adoption the implementation of the program of Linkage as presented. There were no dissenting votes.

8. The Memorial Foundation, in open session, approved and allocated funds to support the awards, etc.

This is a brief outline of what has transpired to date. The first of the authorized awards was presented by President Carlyle P. Woelfer on February 22 during the '86 mid-year. (See "Best Soldier Award" on page one.)

Again, no change contemplated in membership requirements.

"Poop For The Group"

The Military Police Chapter newsletter, "Poop For The Group," receives our mythical award this month for being best among those sent to us. Edited by Bob Snodell, it's a fast paced account of events and happenings involving chapter members. It may be Bob will display evidence of his abilities at Oklahoma City by posting a copy for everyone to peruse.

We have received several others, all of them good. Keep them coming, and if we can plagiarize a few items, then all our readers can enjoy them.

"Best Private"

Rainbow Veteran Robert R. Monsen would like to find the men known as "Best Private" from other units, who were sent to Camp Gruber to help start the 42d Infantry Rainbow Division in World War II. Each Cadreman of the Rainbow Division was assigned to the equivalent platoon, company, etc., of the 102d Infantry Division in January 1943. From the 45 Infantry Companies of the 102d Division the "Best Privates" were chosen. In April 1943 the Rainbow Cadre and "Best Privates" boarded trucks and headed north from Camp Maxey, Texas to Camp Gruber, Oklahoma. The "Best Privates" were initially assigned to Division Headquarters Company or returned to an equivalent unit. Robert Monsen elected to transfer to Company I, 222d Infantry Regiment.

If you were a member of this elite group, please write to Robert R. Monsen, 216 Carlisle Road, Audubon, N.J. 08106.

Perhaps we can recognize those people at a later date who helped get us "fillers" off on the right foot — or was it the left foot?

The large trophy will be displayed in an appropriate area. Spec 4 Anderson received a smaller replica of the Collins Trophy, a $100 US Savings Bond, a pocket patch for the field uniform embroidered "Division Best Soldier-1985" with a subdued rainbow, plus Rainbow Ribbons for the Class "A" uniform epaulets. Her company received a streamer for the company guidon reading "Division Best Soldier — 1985" with rainbows at each end of the streamer.

The command sergeant majors of each battalion and brigade level of the Division selected the winner from candidates proposed by each of the major subordinate commands, each of whom was first chosen from their company and battalion.

The Reveille Committee is contemplating a feasibility study on changing the publication schedule of the Reveille to give better coverage to the mid-year meetings so it will not be ancient history by the time you read about it. A decision should be forthcoming at Oklahoma City.

Potpourri

Someone has written "Old Soldiers never die; they just go to reunions." We will be looking for you in Oklahoma City. * * * British Astronomer Edmond Halley (1656-1742) correctly predicted about 1705, without benefit of sophisticated telescopes and technology available today, the return every 76 years of the comet that bears his name. Our present day meteorologists, with every instrument known to man, can't accurately predict the weather 24 hours in advance. * * * Words that no longer seem to go together are military and intelligence. * * * A recent documentary brought out that General Douglas MacArthur did not like troops being referred to as "G.I.s." He wanted them called soldiers or men.

Preamble RDVA

Constitution

"We, the members of the Rainbow (42d) Division, in order to perpetuate the comradeship which was the greatest single factor in the success of the Division, and to keep alive the memory of our departed comrades, do ordain and establish this constitution for the veterans of the Rainbow Division."

What Do You Remember Of World War I?

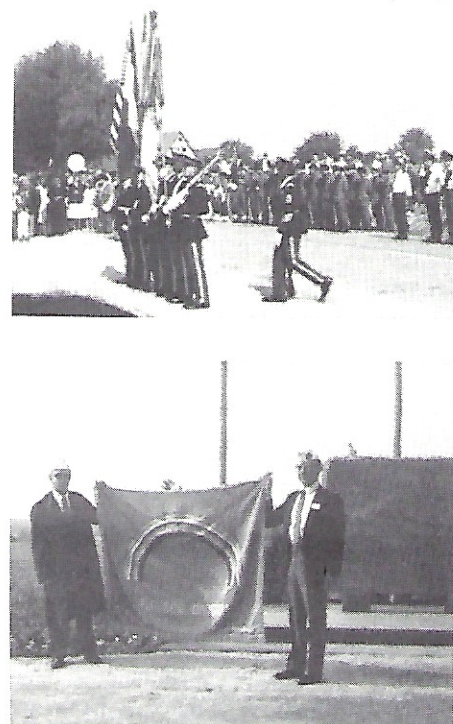

The BBC (British Broadcasting Corp.) is making a documentary and would be very pleased to hear from Americans who have any memories of this period.

For example: Do you remember the sinking of the Lusitania? What was the reaction in your home town when the USA joined the war? Did you fight with the British on the western front? And do you remember Woodrow Wilson?

If anyone has any reminiscences of this period, I would be very interested to hear from you.

Please contact: Leonie Jameson, BBC, Room 1044, Kensington House, Richmond Way, London W14 OAX, Great Britain.

ATTENTION: RAINBOWERS who survived GAMBESHEIM-Weyersheim (Jan. 5th, 6th, 7th, 1945). Did you witness the White Flag Surrender Demand by the German commander at the GAMBESHEIM defensive line on January 7, 1945? If you did or you know someone who did, please write pronto to: Joe Neilson, (Co H, 242), P.O. Box 357, Ellicott City, MD 21043.

Hatten - Rittershoffen Monument

On June 16, 1985 at Hatten and Rittershoffen, France, a ceremony was held commemorating the fortieth Anniversary of the WW II battle of the area which lasted from January through March, 1945.

For their heroic defense of this sector members of the 1st Bn 242d were awarded the Presidential Citation.

The activities began with an ecumenical service in the local Catholic church in Hatten conducted jointly by Lutheran and Catholic clergy. In addition, impressive addresses were given by the Mayor of Hatten and other dignitaries. In attendance were American, French and German veterans who had participated in that battle, one in a wheelchair and others who had lost an arm or leg.

Upon departing the church those attending marched midway to Rittershoffen for the unveiling of a monument dedicated to the battle. Already assembled were active duty American and French troops and a military band. Each nation had its own spokesman who spoke in his native tongue, after which each speech was translated into English.

Wear Them Proudly

The Army encourages wartime service veterans and retirees to wear their authorized military awards and decorations on Memorial Day, Armed Forces Day, Fourth of July and Veterans' Day, as well as military funerals, memorial services and military weddings. These awards and decorations may be worn on civilian clothing during such events in the issued size or in miniature.

The wearing of awards and decorations on the occasions cited is considered to be evidence of pride in service to our country and identification with and respect for departed veterans and armed forces personnel when attending military funerals and memorial services. Military retirees may also wear uniforms appropriate for such occasions and for special military events.

Additional Honors For Task Force Linden Vets

Were you a veteran of Task Force Linden? If so, the following information may be of special interest to you:

In 1947 the Department of the Army changed the identification of the Ardennes Campaign to Ardennes-Alsace. This campaign now covers the period from about 11 December 1944 to 26 January 1945. It includes, in addition to Belgium, the Department of Alsace France, including the fighting in that area in January and the units engaged in that area. Task Force Linden's operations in that area are covered in that campaign.

If you were a member of Task Force Linden and participated in the January action to January 26 or were evacuated, wounded or sick or were captured while in that combat, you are authorized to take credit for that campaign.

Since most Rainbow soldiers left the service prior to 1947, your records may show only Rhineland and Central Europe Campaigns as the 42d Infantry Division was inactivated in Austria in July 1946. Campaign credit for Central Europe ended with VE Day. With credit added for the three campaigns, i.e., Alsace-Ardennes, Rhineland and Central Europe, a veteran may wear three battle stars on the ETO Ribbon. Your records can be corrected, if interested, through the normal channels to add the campaign credit.

167th Memorabilia

The 1st Battalion (Mech), 167th Infantry, 31st Armored Brigade, ALARNG, part of the 42d Infantry Division as the 167th Infantry, WWI, is celebrating a major anniversary in July. The Battalion is looking for WWI memorabilia that pertains to the 167th Infantry, to be placed in a display honoring the WWI Rainbow Division "Brothers." If you have or know of any such items, please contact Anthony J. Cashia, Company B, 1st Battalion (Mech), 167th Infantry, P.O. Box 825, Pelham, AL 35124 or call 205-991-7594.

Hatten - Rittershoffen

At the conclusion of the speeches the monument was unveiled and three wreaths placed at its base, one each from the Americans, French and Germans.

The monument is of solid stone with the inscription in French, in remembrance of the hardships encountered by the people of these three nations who were in the area during the conflict.

A parade was then formed with the dignitaries leading the way, followed by the French and American troops. The American veterans followed the troops and marched back to Hatten. Residents of the area lined both sides of the streets, waving from windows, many with tears in their eyes. It was apparent the event brought back many unpleasant memories. The parade ended at the museum where a German tank was placed in the courtyard.

The museum is fantastic. It houses every conceivable memento of war: mortar fins, rifles, uniforms of both sides, army signs, photographs taken during WW II and should be included in your itinerary if you travel in Europe.

There were many more activities, including a luncheon, visits between the Americans and Germans, swapping of war stories on both sides.

In addition to Rainbow veterans, there were 24 from the 14th Armored and several from the 79th Division.

"Looking back at our meeting at Hatten on June 16, 1985 I must say it was deeply moving to find that we, as former enemies, were able to join together again as friends in peace, willing to forgive one another and all this among the very people who suffered severely from our military operation 40 years ago. What a gesture of generosity and understanding from those who asked us to meet on their home-ground! I wish that the people of Hatten and Rittershoffen, in what they did for us, could give an example to others. Let us hope for peace in the future, for freedom and reconciliation. And let us remain as friends."

President's Message

pected to use all available means to implement and support membership approved actions. As is my duty, I will continue to do so in all areas, to include the linkage actions.

For the RDVA to withdraw unilaterally from a written agreement, made in good faith with the Commanding General, 42d Infantry (Rainbow) Division, NYARNG, would be the same as going back on our word. Such a breach of faith would be very damaging to the good name of Rainbow veterans and not understood by Division members. There is no apparent benefit to be derived for anyone from such action, but much harm is evident. Let us refrain from further bickering and uninformed claims on this subject and cease and desist from such considerations.
