Rainbow Take A Bow! 1150 at Pittsburgh

Honor Guard prepares to lead RDVA to Memorial Service.

Despite a steady rain and competition from a rock group, "The New Kids on the Block", the ebullient spirits of 1150 Rainbowners (including all 18 living PNPs), were not dampened, as they participated in another greatly successful Reunion. The Reunion was co-chaired by Jon Janosik, Jean Kemmerer, her daughter, Barbara, and a host of hard working 132nd Signal Co. comrades. All are to be complimented for a wonderful affair.

Business meetings were handled competently, allowing lots of free time for socializing. Happy Rainbowners enjoyed the Cruise and Dance in spite of the weather. The Memorial Service was truly awe inspiring, as a military honor guard led marching Rainbowners to St. Mary of Mercy Church for the ceremony.

Father Weiss made opening remarks, and introduced co-celebrants Revs. Forde, Willemssen, and Father Erb, who delivered a masterful homily. With his usual charm and wit. PNP Ted Johnson gave a superlative performance, as he read the roll call of our honored dead, and then recalled the saga of our Champagne heroes.

Throughout the program, grandchildren of Ted and Jean sang sweetly and movingly. Taps completed the program.

The concluding Banquet was another grand climax. At the conclusion, we were treated to a surprise! The curtains rolled back and revealed a brass band which played a selection of military music and marches. May we all meet again in HOUSTON!

President's Report

Thanks to everyone for allowing me to serve as President of this unique Association. My theme for the year is "Rainbow Friendship". We are indeed friends as well as comrades. I hope that friendships will become even stronger as Rainbowners meet in their local areas during the coming year.

There is much to be accomplished: enrolling first time members and re-attracting lapsed members, gathering our archives, encouraging the sons-daughters program, and strengthening our Memorial Foundation by making everyone aware of it's goals. POW stories should be sent to Bill Keithan, wartime accounts, letters, accounts, diaries, and cassette recording to Dee Eberhart. Dee will see that we will have a living record of our mutual experiences. Continued support of the Reveille is requested with pictures and stories. After use in the Reveille, they will be passed on to Dee. This year will see publication of books by Lise Pommois and Dick Engler.

Your attention is called to the list of officers on Page 2. Please keep in contact with those listed, as well as your local officers and National Committeemen. Joe Rosalia is unable to serve because of physical reasons. We thank Joe and wish him well. I am delighted to welcome Father Weiss as President-Elect, and will have his close support during the year.

Pearl and her sister gave me a surprise party in honor of becoming President. Relatives, friends, and Rainbowners attended, and all decorations were in Rainbow colors. I received a beautiful plaque from the California chapter: so it looks like I am off to a good year!

Yours in Rainbow
Donald Segel

Chaplain's Prayer

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we give you thanks for our great country, the United States of America, a Nation Under God. Just in the past year we have seen governments that were officially godless crumble and fall. We have seen so many people rush to freedom, breaking down walls and barriers, risking their very lives to be able to enjoy freedoms that we take for granted. We thank you God, for the part we of Rainbow have played during two wars, and since that time in keeping alive the memory of what it costs to be a free country.

We pray your blessing upon our president and the leaders of all nations as they make plans for a new world with different alliances and different loyalties. Above all, may we not let down our guard, and may we never forget that we are a great nation because we are a Godly nation, a nation that proclaims liberty and justice for all. To you we give the thanks for the many benefits we enjoy. Amen. Rev. Norman P. Forde

Decorations & Awards

In individual conversations with many of our new members we have found that they are still unaware of awards they earned. We reprint the following derived from previous issues of the Reveille:

In 1947, the Department of the Army changed the identification of the Ardennes Campaign to Ardennes- Alsace. This campaign now covers the period from 11 December 1944 to 26 January 1945. It includes, in addition to Belgium, the Department of Alsace, France, including the fighting in that area in January and the units engaged in that area. Task Force Linden's operations there are covered in that campaign. If you were a member of Task Force Linden and participated in the January action, or were evacuated, wounded or sick or were captured while in that combat, you are authorized to take credit for that campaign.

Many Army veterans may be eligible for a Bronze Star Medal for service from Dec. 7, 1941 through September 2, 1945, if they meet one of the following criteria: If they were awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge or Combat Medic Badge.

To receive these awards write and send documentation to Headquarters, RCPERCEN, Attn: DARCP SE AW, 9700 Page Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri, 63132.

ALSO: Remember Hotel Reservations made later than June 16, 1991 may be charged at the regular commercial rates. So-o-o lets all get going early.

East Coast Reunion

Approximately 75 Rainbowers gathered at College Park, Md. on May 18-20, for the annual East Coast Reunion. Romeo Fagiola and Vince Pizzi arranged a great program which left everyone happy, but a little exhausted. The affair was graced by the presence of Pres. Dolian and Jane Harris, as well as Auxiliary Pres. Pearl Emlett and Red Cap Glenn. Other notables attending were Foundation Pres. PNP Ivan Wallace and 2nd Aux. VP Myrtle, PNP Phil and PNAP Tiny Trout, N.J. Chapter Pres. Jay Price, PNAP Annabelle Cook, 222nd Pres. and N.J. PCP Bob and Dorothy Monsen, VP East Region Walter L. Pierce along with Bill Twiss.

On Friday, the group journeyed to the Marine Barracks for an outstanding Retreat Parade featuring the Silent Drill team. The following day, after visiting the Space Museum, the group attended a wreath laying ceremony at Gen. Linden's grave. See photo above. Gen. Linden's son John, and his family attended the ceremony, The 3rd Inf. provided escorts and a bugler.

The banquet, on Saturday night, opened with the blessing by Chaplain Norman Forde, who also made interesting comments regarding Gen. MacArthur, D.C. Chapter Val Spiegel introduced all of our VIPs and then the guest speaker— our own Dick Engler, author of "Final Crisis", who gave a most interesting talk tying in Memorial Day with excerpts from his book on "Nordwind".

A brunch on Sunday and a tour of Annapolis culminated this grand affair.

John D. Carr Award Winner

To help promote the National Association of Rainbow Division Veterans, not only in Life Membership, but also in greater attendance at National Reunions, PNP John D. Carr awards a life membership at each National Reunion. This year's winner was Bob Blanton Co, B, 232nd Inf.

A Soldier's Return

On the far side of town was the place where Lt. Col. William Zeller had made his valiant stand with a hastily organized mini-task force. With a few already decimated rifle companies, some machine guns and a few bazookas, he had moved forward from a point of woods on the north side of Gambsheim. Along the road, he met a group of five of our tanks withdrawing. When he told the tank commander to accompany his force, he was told that the tanks had orders to return to Hoerdt, and they thundered off to the rear. They might have made all the difference, not just by helping our left flank to succeed, but in driving the Germans back across the Rhine. If we had been able to cross the Rhine — why did they not stay?

In a short time, Bill Zeller had his troops formed into a skirmish line along the tracks. However, the German infantry was supported by Panzers. One of the Bazooka men hit the front of one of the tanks, just as it fired. Zeller saw the bazooka man's head go spiraling off. The tanks moved closer. The Americans were placed under direct fire. They had no chance. The defense of the left flank was over.

After taking some photos of that area, we looked for what may have been the headquarters for Co. M's second machine gun platoon. Lt. Dutton, Frank Smith, and a dozen others had fought off the Germans for two days. They had only small arms and one or two machine guns and mortars. They were hit with everything. One house after another was set afire by tanks as they moved to another. In vain, the few survivors waited for a counterattack. Eventually, they had to surrender.

We could not find Dutton's headquarters, but did locate the pillbox where Sgt. Weidner and his machine gun squad had been trapped for three days. We passed some tennis courts, a soccer field, and then across a great spread of land, we saw a squat, round structure. As we drove over a bumpy, dirt road, the image grew. We could see the discolorations, peeling paint, the black rectangles from which the machine guns and rifles once fired, and the completely rusted turret.

We stopped the car and walked over to the still formidable and seemingly indestructible structure. Steel reinforced, two feet thick, and rounded for deflection of artillery shells. How quickly we had learned that it was a bitter, cruel joke for those who had to fight within them. With firing ports only on the side facing the Rhine, they were useless against attacks from the flanks or rear, and became prisons instead of forts. So it had been for Sgt. Weidner. His squad, two riflemen from Co. I, and two mortar platoon observers were cut off and surrounded for three days. They had only the water in their canteens and a No. 10 can of green beans for food. They were subjected to a constant rain of tank, artillery, and machine gun fire, but were able to hold off the Germans. The third morning, Weidner attempted to get back to our lines, but was immediately hit three times by machine gun fire. Two of his men rushed out and dragged him back. That afternoon, an American tank came up and, not knowing the pillbox was occupied by G.I.s, fired on them. One man ran to the tank and pointed out the Germans. Under cover of the tank fire, Weidner and his men jumped on the tank, and were transported back to Kilstett.

(To be concluded)

Battle of Gambsheim

We have gleaned from the National Military archives the following addendum to after action accounts of the Battle of Gambsheim. It was written by 1st Lt. Arthur Gottlieb- Historical Section- European Theater of Operations.

"So ended a tragic battle, one which unfortunately saw the participants come under their first baptism of fire. Despite the outcome, no discredit can be brought upon them, for they fought on bravely against insurmountable obstacles for as long a time as they could. The final result was undoubtedly due to the apparent lack of intelligence, on the part of TFL as to the proper enemy strength and disposition. In addition, the need for a sudden hasty attack left no time for necessary planning, briefing of key personnel, or an all important reconnaissance of the terrain ahead of them, and what lay in it. The officers, as well as the men, were given the impression, at the start, that they would merely encounter a small enemy patrol which could quickly and easily be knocked out; they had absolutely no idea of the trouble they were to run into. The obvious lack of sorely needed vital support to accompany the infantrymen, in the form of tanks, large gun, and bazooka ammunition, to counter the German armor, stemmed from this erroneous G-2 information on the enemy situation. If they were on hand, quite possibly it would have meant a vastly different story at the end: success, instead of failure."

Rainbow Love

Many letters we receive are much too long to be entirely printed due to space limitations. The following is such a one. By shortening it, we believe we have not lost the import of this tribute by a son in memory of his Rainbow Dad.

"My late father, Harold Klemm, Bty. C, 149th F.A., participated in 6 major battles with the Rainbow in WW1, and was wounded in action. Although he never talked about the bloody part of his war experience, he did tell us of many amusing experiences. After he passed away, I found an old address book among his mementos. Between its pages was a well preserved poppy with the notation that it was taken in the front lines. This reminded me of the time my father had picked the poem 'In Flanders Field' for me to recite to my 3rd grade class,

One more thing I found was a copy of a song I remember him singing: 'First they took us to Lorraine; Then we traveled to Champagne; Toot Suite to Chateau Thierry; Where we made the Huns look weary; Six days rest and we took St. Mihiel; Then we cleaned up the Argonne; But best of all Rainbow scaled the wall; That ran around Sedan That was some ball.

My father was a man for all seasons, as were all his Rainbow comrades in WW1 and WW2. Let us never forget that they unselfishly risked their lives so that we can live in peace and enjoy our freedom. May the Stars and Stripes forever fly over our country. I am most proud to be his son."

Robert Klemm

Ed. note: Bob also served in WW2 and is an associate member. He sent ink sketches of his father at Camp Mills that we passed on to Bill Keithan.

Ultimate Weapon; the Infantryman Marchers to the Drum

Down the road they come
So tall and lithe and splendid;
Marchers to the drum
In khaki rows extended.

Swift they sail away
To foreign seas and places.
Charge into the fray;
And some lose limbs or faces.

Peace in time will come,
And joy will be expended.
Marchers to the drum
Will lie in graves well tended.

H Co - 242 Receives Chapter Charter

A new charter was granted to Co. H, 242nd Inf, which announced that they had 35 members. The chapter's President James P. Lamb stated that it would not have been possible without the efforts of Joe Neilson. Ed. Note: Joe is one of those dedicated Rainbowers who is constantly doing all in his power to promote Rainbow. Take a bow Joe!

President Elect

We are delighted to report that the President Elect for the 1991-92 year will be Rev. Robert F. Weiss S.J. Father Bob served with M Co. 222nd Inf. His most noteworthy accomplishments are legion, and to list them all would fill a large volume.

Attendance Trophies

Charles Paine announced that there was a two-way tie for both the trophy for the unit with the largest attendance (Co. M, 222nd Inf and Co. B, 232nd Inf.), and the trophy for the largest percentage of Improvement (Co. H, 242nd Inf. and Co. L, 232nd Inf.). As we receive more information, we will print it.

Rainbow Returns

Jim Schaefer (Co. I - 232nd Inf.) is planning a group trip entitled "The Rainbow Division Returns," which will retrace the path the division took through France, Germany, and Austria in 1944-45. The trip will be open to all WWII Rainbow Division veterans and their wives, and will be scheduled for two weeks in May or June 1991. What will be unique about this trip is that it will not only give us the chance to travel and reminisce together, but also provide us ample opportunity to revisit — individually — spots that hold special significance to us. (We will provide the options of rental cars and cars with hired drivers from the hub cities.) For information, please contact Jim at 7680 Hi-View Drive, North Royalton, Ohio 44133.

Member Deaths

Once more it becomes necessary to bring up the subject of member deaths. It will make things so much easier for our National Secretary if Chapter Secretaries follow the accepted procedure — USE THE MEMORIAL FORMS! Newsletters to the Editor or National Secretary are not the basis for the Memorial File. Our Secretary has a good supply of Memorial File Forms which are yours for the asking. He will even have them on his person at all reunions. Too many times member deaths go unreported due to this broken link in our chain. Give Herb a break instead of a headache! Write him for forms and use them for reports of death PLEASE!

Furth/Nuremburg

We received a letter from an active duty Army Officer, who is researching the battle of Furth/Nuremburg (Apr. 45). He is trying to locate veterans of all ranks and units. Write or call: Ed Miller, Capt. GS 15989 Cove Ln., Dumfries, VA. 22026 - Tel. 703-878-0809.

The Rainbow Memorial Foundation Trustees met twice during the Pittsburgh reunion. President Ivan Wallace was able to conduct the meetings despite a bout with a detached retina.

At the first meeting on July 12th, George Jackson reported that the Scholarship Committee had awarded ten $500 first time scholarships for the fall term and had also awarded nine $300 renewal scholarships to previous scholarship winners, for a total of $7,700 in scholarship grants. The award winners are majoring in a variety of subjects at both large and small colleges and universities.

Bill Keithan, Archivist, reported that a brief, or summary, of the history and objectives of the Memorial Foundation had been given to all the registrants at Pittsburgh. This Foundation document is a prelude to a comprehensive booklet, in preparation, that includes the Foundation history, objectives, constitution and by-laws, memorial locations, administration, funding, and also a wide range of suggested giving opportunities to support the Foundation objectives in perpetuity. This booklet will be distributed to all Rainbowers in the RDVA, associate members, Auxiliary members, and to allied organizations.

Dee Eberhart has received several quotations from publishers wishing to print Lise Pommois' history of the fighting in Northern Alsace from 11/23/44 to 3/18/45. Dee is writing the publishers requesting an additional quotation that will make all of the quotes on the same basis and will include all charges for the printing. Lise expects to complete the history by 11/1/90.

Prior to the second meeting of the Memorial Foundation Trustees, the General Session of the reunion elected or reelected trustees to fill the expiring terms. The present trustees: W. Baldock, D. Eberhart, V. Evanoff, T. Johnson, H. Klinedinst, C. Marshall, and A. Woods are one year trustees; W. Barton, H. Butt, J. Janosik, Wm. J. Keithan, Jr., J. Kemmerer, J. Keyser, I. Wallace, and P. Segel are two year trustees; and A. Brewer, J. Carr, A. Cook, J. McGovern, D. Harris, G. Jackson, N. Klinedinst, and B. Manley IV are three year trustees. The Foundation officers are unchanged and are Chairman-Basil Manley IV, President-Ivan Wallace, Secretary-Bill Barton, Judge Advocate-Ted Johnson.

The Audit Committee report was presented by Chairman John Carr, and was approved by the Trustees. The audit confirmed a balance of $104,128.74 in total Memorial Foundation funds. $25,793.32 of this total is in the Scholarship Trust. The Budget Committee report was presented by Chairman Rube Evanoff and was approved by the Trustees. The budget for the next fiscal year is $12,315, including the $7,700 awarded in scholarships.

The Foundation still has the "Turner" histories available. These books have short histories with pictures of the Rainbow Division in both World Wars and also have biographies with "then and now" pictures of many Rainbow veterans. These books are sold for $50, which includes shipping costs. They may be ordered from Ted Johnson, 5255 Rockwell Dr., Cedar Rapids, IA 52402.
