RAINBOW REVEILLE

VOL. XXXVI NOVEMBER, 1956 NO. 3

The President's Message

I was just thinking, when I finish writing this message I will have only seven more to go! And then I'll be wondering what to do with my surplus time. In any event, I am sure of one thing; I will have completed a full year of service to something I love - Rainbow - and everything connected with it. Where else will you find a veterans organization that half way equals our great Rainbow Association? Just stop and think over the years since our Association was organized; 1919 was the year, and it has been known as a great veterans organization ever since. A handful of loyal Rainbowers have worked hard to keep the wheels of Rainbow rolling throughout the years, and instead of growing weaker it has grown stronger. And I might add that the future looks very bright for Rainbow. We have our younger Rainbow brothers coming into the Association; they are certainly becoming more interested and are beginning to realize that we older Rainbowers really want them in the Association.

We already have one of the new "UNIT" Chapters formed, with a membership of thirty-six to start with, and the possibility of doubling this within the next few months. We must give the credit for organizing this new Chapter to a WW II man, John J. O'Kane, of Illinois. We are advised that there are a couple more of these Unit Chapters in the process of formation. Thank you, Rainbow Sparkplugs, and please keep the ball a rolling!

I recently received a fine letter from a fine Rainbower, Don Trent of Phoenix, Arizona. One paragraph, which I quote, certainly exemplifies the spirit of Rainbow. He says, "We have a small Chapter as you know; chartered just three years ago last July, and we had thirty-five members last year. We now have thirty-one paid up for this year and are certain to exceed the thirty-five. There is no list available to us of Rainbowers in Arizona, so we have had nothing to start with. BUT EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE SOME OLD BOY CRAWLS OUT OF THE BUSHES AND SAYS HE SERVED IN THE RAINBOW --- AND WE GRAB HIM!" And so it goes, whether they get them out of the bushes or from some other source, we have to give credit to some of our more active Rainbowers who seem to be more efficient and capable in securing members than others. I could go on and mention more Chapters who are outstanding in securing members but the list would be too long.

Now another very important subject, the Mid-Year National Executive Committee Meeting and the so-called "Little Reunion" which will be held in Columbus, Ohio, at the Deshler Hilton Hotel on February 23rd and 24th. May we urge that you make every effort to attend this big Rainbow event? As you know, this meeting is NOT just confined to the Executive Committee --- it is open to ALL members of Rainbow, as are all Rainbow affairs. So why not plan to be with us in Columbus --- I am sure you will never regret being there. And let me ask you at this time, if you DO plan to be in Columbus, to please spend 2¢ and a minute of your time and send me a POST CARD as soon as possible telling me that you will be with us. Thanks!

I call your attention to an Edi-

Lets Bragg a Little

A bird we admire, and with whom we are in complete sympathy, is the Red Breasted Titwhit. This feathered friend flies always with his head turned to the rear; for he cares little where he is going but he does like to see where he has been.

We are not sure just where our Association is headed --- though we know it will get where ever it heads for and that it will be a good spot --- but we love to look back, as we do, with satisfaction and pride upon the path we have trod. Our Association is rooted in the magnificent accomplishments of our beloved Rainbow Division in two World Wars. As an Association it has, from its inception, been a transcendent success in every phase of its activities. That 35¢ word means, roughly, "exceeding all others;" and that's how we have always felt about it. But the other day we got hold of a current balance sheet of another divisional association and had a chance to check up on this "exceeding all others" business. This association, which we will certainly not name here, was organized by a combat division with a distinguished record in World War I, in World War II, and in the Korean War (or whatever they call it.) Its membership is drawn from the men who served in all of these wars, and is open, moreover, to men serving in this division in these piping times of peace (if that's what you call 'em.)

No man could have served in this Division without a feeling of intense pride --- and thus it may justly be compared with the Rainbow Division and its Association with our Association. What does such a comparison reveal?

Their current membership stands at approximately 41% of the membership of our Association. In spite of "donations" of over $1300 for the year, they showed a deficit of about $2000 for the same period that our Association was showing a surplus of about $600.

Perhaps it isn't very "nice" to make these comparisons. But after all, we haven't named the organization --- and we are making the comparison to strengthen our own self-confidence and morale.

We have done well. We have every reason to survey our Association's record of accomplishment with satisfaction and pride. We are in very truth "transcendent!" Let's keep it that way!

MID-YEAR MEETING

In a historical conference the Governor of South Carolina is reputed to have declared to the Governor of North Carolina that "It's a long time between drinks." On an equally historical occasion it is certain that one Rainbower must have declared to another, "It is a long time between Reunions. In fact it is too long." For Rainbow has established a sort of Half Way House between its Annual National Reunions held each July. The Mid Year Meeting of the National Executive Committee supposedly provided the occasion. It is more accurate to say that the desire for an additional Rainbow meeting on a National scale caused the custom of holding such meetings to be established.

Geo. Walters

When the Mid-Year Meeting is held on February 23rd and 24th at the Deshler Hilton Hotel in Columbus,

Rainbowers Head Army and Air Force

"Proud of the outfit you were in?" Having served with the Rainbow Division you are, of course, and you have good reason to be. The Rainbow Division made a brilliant record in two World Wars.

Sec'y Brucker

Its achievements wrote magnificent chapters in U. S. military history --- and now it has done it again!

Men who served with the Rainbow Division are now heading both the Army and the Air Force. Wilber M. Brucker, who served with the 166th Infantry in World War I is the Secretary of the Army; Donald A. Quarles, who served with the 149th Field Artillery in World War I, is the Secretary of the Air Force. This is a circumstance as gratifying as it is extraordinary although it could not be seriously argued that they were selected for these high posts because they served with so famed a Division.

Sec'y Quarles

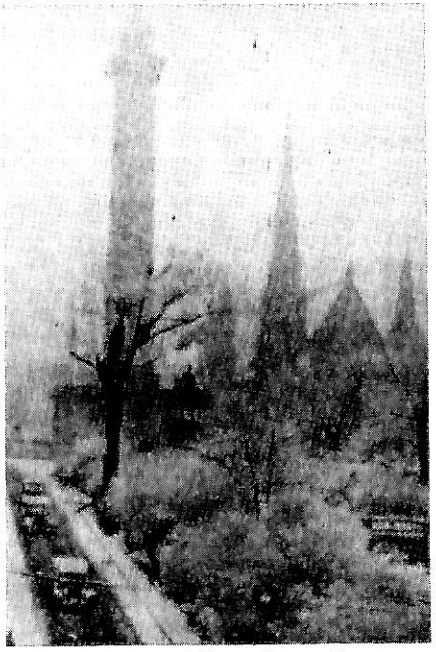

But this is a remarkable climax to the circumstance that the Rainbow has contributed more outstanding leaders to our military service and to our government than has any other combat division --- and by an outstanding margin.

We contributed two Chiefs of Staff, in Charles T. Summerall and Douglas MacArthur. It is hardly necessary to enumerate the distinguished posts that have been so notably filled by General MacArthur. General Menoher, our Division Commander, was the first

Stansbury Presents Baltimore Monuments

As we look toward the July Reunion it will perhaps be worth while to describe places of historical and contemporary interest to be visited in Old Baltimore. We will choose for our first subject the Washington Monument and its surrounding Mt. Vernon and Washington Places.

Mt. Vernon Place Snow Scene

The Monument, one of Baltimore's most famous memorials, was the first major monument completed in honor of George Washington. Designed by Robert Mills, the cornerstone was laid in 1815 on land donated by Col. John Eager Howard, the Revolutionary hero. It was completed in 1829 at a cost of $190,000. The shaft is of great architectural beauty and its surroundings of lesser monuments small parks and fine old residences and buildings mark it a place of unfailing interest. It contains a museum of history at its base which is open from 8 to 4 daily. A splendid view of Baltimore is afforded from its crest.

Among the lesser Monuments to be visited is General Chairman Jack A. Clarke, who dates back to shortly after the Civil War and is on view daily at the Southern Hotel. There he can be found with porters mopping around his feet, issuing directives to his slaves, the various Reunion Committee Chairmen.

--Harry Stansbury.

ALABAMA Here in Alabama at the present time all Chapters are putting on a drive for members. We want to let National President Mel Horne know that we are still very much alive. To start the ball rolling in the Tuscaloosa area the Bill Squires held their Annual Barbecue recently and the affair was one that will be remembered for some time to come by all that attended. John Winningham took a carload of soldats down from Birmingham. Among these were our State President, Joe McCartney, Dan Garrett and "yours truly." The ladies really put the old "mess hounds" through the mills, after making several passes at the festive board for seconds and thirds and still not making much of a dent in the pile of food the old timers had to loosen their belts, throw up their hands and holler "KOMERAD!" Mike O'Hara acted as Emcee, keeping the occasion on an informal level and upon leaving we are all in accord, that this was the best party the Squires have held. Here's hoping they live to put on many more of these fine affairs.

In Birmingham the Mortimer H. Jordan Chapter is all set for the BIG AFFAIR on Veterans Day (Armistice Day to you old timers.) As usual we will have our National President; Mel and Clara Horne will be our guests of honor, as will many distinguished Rainbowers from other nearby States. These will include Floyd Harper of Indiana --- we are pleased that he and Hugh and Sol and Jerry have worked their way out of the Dallas Pokey --- Rainbowers from Georgia and elsewhere. Due to the 11th being on Sunday our Banquet will be held on Monday evening, November 12th, in the Emerald Room of the Hotel Redmont. The Cocktail Hour is set for 7:00 p.m., the Banquet for 7:30 p.m.

ALL RAINBOWERS WHO ARE IN THIS SECTION AT THAT TIME ARE CORDIALLY INVITED. As usual there will be a small charge to pay for the rations and vin rouge that will be consumed.

General Mark Clark will be the featured speaker for the Peace Day Luncheon on November 12th, along with other "brass" from the Pentagon. Birmingham ranks first in the Nation in their Veterans Day celebrations. We hope to see many of you here for this great occasion.

--"Rags"

DIST. OF COLUMBIA The Chapter kicked off its Rainbow year with a meeting at the National Press Club. Chapter President Larry Kendrick (222d) was out of the city and perennial Treasurer Romeo Fagiolo (222d), one of Rainbow's hardest workers, officiated, assisted by Ted Johnson (232d). Ted, Iowa's loss and our gain, is Chapter Secretary this year.

The Chapter was honored by the presence of Baltimore's Jack A. Clarke, who spoke of plans for the National Reunion to be held next July in Baltimore. Jack is General Chairman of the Reunion Committee. Also present was our National Historian, George Seaman, who described the work done by the Signal Corps in putting together combat films of WW II, which all Rainbow Chapters will be able to see. They will be shown here in Washington first, at which time General Collins and, we hope, Secretary of the Army Wilber Brucker, will be our honored guests.

The D. C. Chapter has started an organized campaign to obtain for all of the WW II men all medals, citations and honors to which they are entitled and have neglected to claim. They will all be presented at a special meeting.

Other Chapters, especially some of the larger ones, should take note of the way the younger Rainbow members have been given the helm in this Chapter, encouraged all the way by the WW I Rainbowers. A fine example for all Rainbow!

GEORGIA On the evening of September 15th, Cooper D. Winn Chapter was lavishly entertained by Mrs. Estelle Levins, (the widow of Buddy Carl) at a buffet supper in the beautiful grounds of her country home. Before night descended on the crowd they all enjoyed picking and eating the scuppernongs from the heavily laden vines of Estelle's vineyard. Our good Chaplain's wife, Mrs. Charles Zink, was so delighted with the taste of the scuppernongs that the Zinks were presented with a generous quantity to take home. It is too bad that most of the crowd were married couples because the moon and Mars gave their most brilliant showing and that night a million stars gave their silent benediction on a happy, well-fed crowd. The weather was really perfect for this occasion.

We all gave our most gracious thanks to our Hostess, and our appreciation to each and every buddy and wife who made this an outstanding affair.

Cooper D. Winn Chapter is on wheels and rolling again!

NEW JERSEY The first meeting of New Jersey Chapter was saddened by the passing of Bennie Lane and Charles Wendel. Secretary Bill Nelson reported 58 members have already paid up, and 58 more are wanted. Charles Albert has just been made District Manager for New Jersey Natural Gas Co. at Wildwood. This is one of the most beautiful spots on the Jersey coast, Charlie reminds Rainbowers planning to go to Baltimore next July. Loyd Matson reported on the Dallas Reunion; he urged everyone to plan now to get to Baltimore next July for a great Reunion. The Christmas Party Committee met with the Auxiliary; report that the event will be held in the Legion Home at Shrewsbury December 9th. This Committee is Co-chairmanned by Art Slattery and Al Patterson.

OKLAHOMA Tulsa Chapter opened its year's activities with an ice cream party at the Bill Butts' home. The first meeting of the Chapter was held September 7th. Both were well attended, and from the prospects it looks like Tulsa will have another successful year.

Tulsa Rainbowers expect to turn out with a good attendance at the big Oklahoma City Reunion on November 10th.

Instead of our usual Dinner-Dance in December, we will have a Covered Dish Dinner on Saturday, December 15th, at 315 South Denver. Remember to keep that date open, for we will be looking for you.

Our newest members are: Joe Rossman (232d) who lives in Miami, Oklahoma, and George Koch (M-232) of Muskogee.

Tulsa ended the last Rainbow year with its Annual Reunion. Sixty-five Rainbowers were present for the lunch and business meeting. Bob Cannon was elected President; Clinton B. Sayles and Jim Tranum, Vice Presidents; John George, Jr., Chaplain, and Leonard Hill, Secretary-Treasurer. To attend this affair the Ed Domingues came all the way from Miami, Florida, Elmer Frasher from Caldwell, Idaho. The Gordon Williards attended their first Reunion since discharge --- and promised never to miss another. Two WW II men, Jack Purdie and Henry Baldwin, also made their first Reunion. Over 100 Rainbowers and ladies were present at the Dinner-Dance.

Oklahoma was second only to Texas in attendance at the National Reunion in Dallas. There were 44 Sooners there, including the Andersens, the Dr. Bradfields, Brocks, Butts, Cannons, Gruenbergs, the Havenstrites, Hills, Mastons, Todds, Tranum, Whaymans, Wilfongs, the Baldwins, Purdies, Rossmans and Wilkins from Tulsa; and from Oklahoma City, Billy Gee, the Paynes, Mangums, McCabes, Koches and the Woods.

Thanks, Oklahoma Rainbow, for your support last year, and for the fine attendance at the Dallas Reunion!

TEXAS Rainbow "gals" practically took over at the September meeting of the Texas Chapter and the experience proved so enjoyable that it was voted to repeat the performance at another joint meeting with the Auxiliary on October 25th. The occasion was the first Chapter meeting since the election of officers for the ensuing year. The installation of officers and business session followed dinner in the Hotel Adolphus in which our newly elected President, Arnold I. Hofland, serves as Assistant Manager. Ted Jones, our "new" Chapter Secretary-Treasurer, reported many new members as a result of the National Reunion in Dallas. The following have been added to the roster for the first time: Glen Bailey (B-542d F.A. Bn); Elias Betancourt (B-542d F.A. Bn); Leonard R. Clarke (K-222d) of Pasadena, Texas; R. N. Hightower (Div. Hq.) of Ft. Worth; W. L. M. Hunter (122d Med. Bn.) of Fairfield; Tom Yantis (D-222d) of Brownwood; Jabe Chapman (B-117th Sup. Tn.) of Austin; L. L. Daniel (C-117th Sup. Tn) of Tyler; Gerald Harvey (165th Inf.) of Houston; W. W. Hoffman (A-117th Sup. Tn.) Big Spring; Harry McLain (E-168th Inf.) of Donna; Neal Morman (Motor Repair Unit) of Irving, Tex.

The ladies of the Texas Auxiliary withdrew from the joint meeting to discuss their plans for activities in the coming Rainbow year. The following officers were elected by the Auxiliary: President, Mrs. Ernestine Jones; Vice President, Mrs. Sibyl Dawson; Treasurer, Mrs. Joan Strange; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, 4022 James Road, Dallas, Texas; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mary Lively.

Cookies and punch were served at the conclusion of the meeting, with the compliments of President

Hofland and his Hotel Adolphus.

Exploits of the Rainbow Division in the Second World War came up for a good airing when General Harry Collins visited Dallas with a group of Rainbowers in late September. Harry was particularly glad to visit again with Bill Rochelle who served with him as Captain, commanding Company D, 242nd Infantry. From what he had to say the experiences of the younger generation in Austria were not too different from the original heroes of the 42nd.

The General, in his work as Vice President of the North American Van Lines, travels throughout the United States, and everywhere he is contacting World War II men to stimulate interest in Rainbow activities and in attendance at the National Reunion next July.

Ohio, it need not be supposed that any world-shaking issues will come up for discussion at the meeting.

"Rainbowers from every section of America will come to Columbus next February," said George R. Walters, who is General Chairman for the affair, "not because of anything on Mel's agenda, but because they want to see one another. They just can't wait until next July!"

The Mid-Year Meeting has become, actually, what it is often called, "the Little National Reunion." "As a matter of fact," George added, while visiting with your Editor recently in Clearwater, "We don't expect it to be too darned little. Our plans are scaling to two big days of Rainbow Reunioneering and," he grinned, "we wouldn't be surprised if the attendance didn't surprise hell out of us!"

Get out that engagement book now and chalk up a date in Columbus!

TWO RAINBOW SERVICE CHIEFS

Chief of a measurably autonomous American Air Force. General John DeWitt was Quartermaster General, and during World War II, as a four-starred General was Chief of the West Coast Defense area, extending from Mexico to Alaska --- and one must recall the post-Pearl Harbor climate to appreciate the magnitude of this assignment. General William Donovan initiated and headed the vital O.S.S. during the War. Four-star General Thomas Handy was Assistant Chief of Staff, and later Commanding General of the American Forces in Germany. Three-star General Miller White was G-1 of the Army during the War, was later G-1 of the Mediterranean Theater. Gen. Bob Beightler commanded the magnificent 37th Division in the Pacific, later commanded forces more extensive than a Corps, a Service Command, and was Governor of Okinawa. Going back, General Frank Leach, many-time Mayor of Minneapolis, was Chief of the National Guard Bureau; Mat Tinley was three-starred General commanding the Iowa National Guard. Col. Ben Hough was a Federal Judge of distinction; General Tyndall was Mayor of Indianapolis; Col. Blanton Winship was Governor of the Virgin Islands; Col. Noble B. Judah was Ambassador to Cuba; Olin Johnson Governor of South Carolina and is now U. S. Senator. Colonel J. Monroe Johnson recently retired after serving several terms as Interstate Commerce Commissioner, after having served as Assistant Secretary of Commerce.

This is written without access to reference material, we are sure to have left out names that should have been included in such a list.

But it is an impressive one, no Rainbower could review it without a feeling of pride and happiness. The Rainbow left the stamp of greatness upon those who served with it.

D Company of the 242nd Infantry held its Second Annual Reunion at the Neil House in Columbus, Ohio, September 1st and 2nd. Those present included 15 former D Company men and their wives. The principal business was the organization of the "D Co., 242nd Inf., Chapter." and the election of the following officers: President, William J. Rochelle, Jr.; Vice Presidents, Howard Wheeler, Ernest Roudebush and David Shewey; Sgt.-at-Arms, George McKinnon; Chaplain, Kenneth Jackson; Secretary-Treasurer, John J. O'Kane.

It was mutually agreed that the group would attend the National Reunion on July 12th, 13th and 14th in Baltimore, Maryland; and that a further Chapter Reunion would be held in Chicago on the week-end preceding Labor Day of 1957. The new Chapter's first application for membership registrations contained 36 names from as far away as the Canal Zone and from all corners of the United States. As usual, Orville "Kit" Carson was in there doing all that he could to give this Chapter a real start in life, and the boys want Orville to know that they appreciate his assistance.

WHAT THEY'RE DOING NOW

SENATOR JAMES RAY FINE (AntiTank-232d) of Gore, Oklahoma, served as President Pro Tem of the Oklahoma Senate during its last session.

CWO FRED H. MILLER (42d QM) was a recent visitor in Tulsa while enroute from Camp Hood, Tex., to the 28th Transportation Co. in Korea. Bea and Freddie will keep the home fires burning in Tulsa until Fred returns.

GEORGE (MACK) PURDIE (132d Medics) and his wife were among the group of WW II Rainbowers at Dallas and were able to re-live mutual experiences with MAJ. ED KEATING, MORRIS CURRY and CHARLIE MARSHALL. Jack is a Lieutenant on the Tulsa Police Department.

JOE ROSSMAN (Hq-232d) is a resident of Miami, Oklahoma, where he is employed by the Goodrich Tire Co. He was at the Dallas Reunion.
